NEW ZEALAND MILITARY NURSING

New Zealand Army Nursing Service - Royal New Zealand Nursing Corps

1915 – 2015

Sherayl McNabb

Launched on 24 October in Christchurch to commemorate the 100 years of the Royal New Zealand Nursing Corps. This book tells the story of the struggle to have a military nursing service established in New Zealand and the ensuing misfortunes and achievements of the nurses who have served and continue to serve.

With over 500 pages, 390 images and the foreword by Her Royal Highness, The Princess Royal, Colonel-in-Chief of the Royal New Zealand Nursing Corps this new book records the 100-year history of the Royal New Zealand Nursing Corps (RNZNC).

Included are rolls of over 2,700 women and men past and present of the RNZNC along with VADs who served in New Zealand military hospitals during World War One and New Zealand nurses who served in other military nursing services and organisations in both World Wars.

A book review by Dr Gay Williams, in the February 2016, The New Zealand Genealogist, acknowledges Sherayl's 'commitment and states, 'I cannot do justice to this excellent record of interest to many of us with nursing links in our families.'
